

Welcome Back to the Palm Harbor Library! We missed you!

Hello ,

We are so happy to welcome you back to the Palm Harbor Library! If you've been subscribed to our newsletter for a while, you've probably noticed a new look to our email communication. That's because we're trying to make our updates more regular, more personal, and more fun! We value you as a patron and an important member of our community, and we want to offer you the best possible experience here at the Palm Harbor Library. In each newsletter, you'll find book spotlights, invitations to our services, and valuable messages from our staff (and occasionally, some quirky fun!)

A MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

GENE COPPOLA

Dear ,

So good to see you again! It's been quite a while since our doors had to close temporarily and my, how has the world changed since then! Probably the annual year-end survey of the most popular buzz words for 2020 will no doubt include "Social Distancing" and "Stay in Place" but unfortunately not, "Play ball!"

But now your library is turning a page (pun intended!) and we're here to serve you again as of Monday, June 1st! Yes, things will be a bit different when you first come back but it will get better as we move along. I like to think we all believe that, it'll just take some time. Meanwhile, here's what we can do for you now:
