

JURIED ARTIST EXHIBITION APPLICATION

Palm Harbor Library is looking for artists from the Tampa Bay area interested in exhibiting two- or three-dimensional artwork in the library's John Brock Art Alcove. Artists selected will exhibit their work for one or two consecutive months. There are no set criteria for artwork, though the pieces should be crafted or framed to a professional standard and have strong public appeal, as they will be visible to the families who walk through. Artists should provide examples of work that illustrate their current portfolio. The exhibit space is 18' in length, 8' high with a 6' protruding wall on the right side. Hanging rails allow for 15' 8" in length with 4' along the protruding wall. Four covered display pedestals are available with a display space of 24 cubic inches each. The Exhibition Selection Committee will have final say in what is displayed and will schedule shows. Artists may provide their own insurance. Artworks may be priced and sold: See Art Liaison for additional information. Show openings/receptions can be arranged at the artist's expense.
