

Hello , welcome to your November News!

We are 13 days away from....

The 13th ANNUAL TELETHON!

A lot has been going on behind the scenes at the Palm Harbor Library...most of it a secret! From staff members filming special segments, to sponsors providing jaw dropping raffle baskets, our library has been buzzing with excitement.

It's time to share that excitement with you, !

Join us on Saturday, November 13th from 9 AM to 10 PM as we live stream on our Youtube Channel.

The Telethon will feature meticulously curated videos to provide your family all sorts of entertainment. Want to know what acts are lined up? Check out our completed Telethon Programming Schedule.

Here are just a handful of videos you will see during the Telethon:

A Breathtaking Cello Performance

Reading with the Rays

Palm Harbor University High School Choir Performance

Christmas Crafting Tutorials

Mother Goose Rhyme Time

Staff dancing the Hokey Pokey (yes, it's hilarious...)

and so much more!

Now comes the important question...WHY are we having this fundraiser and why is your support so important?

The Palm Harbor Library has received cutbacks to financial streams that helped us with operational expenses: electricity, maintenance, and all the things that allow us to remain open and bring you amazing services. To continue our mission, we need your help. Every donation counts and we are looking forward to earning your contribution by showing you a great time on November 13th.

, can we count on you? We hope you'll tune in on our live YouTube stream (make sure to go there now and hit the subscription bell!) or you can make a donation here NOW (and still tune in later!)

But wait...There's more! For every $5 you donate you receive a raffle ticket to use for any of our Raffle Baskets. To check out the 13 baskets, please click HERE.

On the right, there are two small animal icons: a pink rabbit and a white cat. The text 'Next meeting: NOVEMBER 24, 5-6 PM THEME: IDOL' is prominently displayed. Director's Column

"Many of you may not know this but fines for overdue material was Palm Harbor Library's third largest annual revenue stream. On average between 2016 and 2020, $28,000 was collected yearly! It helped pay for all those glamorous items such as electricity, water, waste pickup, and janitorial services.

So what do we do? Sit back and cry or do something about it?"
