Happy Spring! Spring is in full bloom here at the Palm Harbor Library. Check out what’s up ahead!

Featured Events
Sat. June 4th - Starting at 10AM

Summer Registration Day

It's the first day to register for all summer 2022 reading clubs and events! This summer’s theme is OCEANS OF POSSIBILITIES with a selection of fun activities for everyone from infants to adults.

Please note: Reading Clubs require in-person registration; sign up for events may be in-person or with limited spots available online.

Summer reading is coming! Registration is required for most events so be sure to get signed up early for all the fun – don’t forget the reading clubs, too!
MOTHER'S DAY

Tea Party

Saturday, May 07, 2022
2:00 PM - 3:30 PM

Bring your special tea cup for a lovely afternoon of tea history, games, and tea!

Registration for this event is required. Please call the library to sign up.
Celebrate National Pet Month and learn tips and tricks to capturing your special family member on film or digitally! Just bring yourself (NO PETS, PLEASE), and let our local professional photographer show you the ropes!
All ages welcome! Learn about Japanese culture and music with a lively and loud show from Tampa Taiko, a professional drumming ensemble.

Program made possible by and in memory of David and Gail Meltzer.

Adult Events and Programs
Get your energy up! Please note there’s no session on May 30th. Prerequisite: must have completed Beginners’ Tai Chi for Balance course. Visit our calendar of events to register.
