Happy reading!

Hello -

September is Library Card Sign-Up Month! Know someone moving to the area? Be sure to share with them how much the library can make them feel a part of their new community. How long have you had your library card?

Your card gives you access to not only what we have at the library, but also online services like Hoopla, Libby, and more. Come on in, call, or explore our website for more information.

Children in grades K- 5th who sign up for their first library card this month receive a certificate, free book, and small prize!

Those in 6th through 12th grade and adults getting their first library card, will receive one free book that you get to choose from a selection!

Check out our FULL calendar of events here!

*The library will be closed for Labor Day on Monday, September 5th***

Be sure to follow our socials linked at the bottom of the newsletter for daily updates.

THE DAYS OF AWE
COMMEMORATING THE JEWISH NEW YEAR

All are welcome for celebration

The High Holy Days—the 10 days from Rosh HaShanah to Yom Kippur—is a time of introspection, self-assessment, prayer and ultimately anticipation and gladness for the New Year. The intent of this presentation (appropriate for everyone) is to offer Hebraic music conducive to self-evaluation and meditation. Click here to learn more about this celebration.

It's back! Our next Food Truck Rally is Friday, Sept. 30th! Bring your taste buds and stretchiest pants to enjoy local eats, music, games and your favorite library: The Library itself will be staying open until 8 PM that night.

Head to our Facebook or Instagram to see our posts on this event: We've tagged the food trucks so you can learn more about them.
