

Director's Column:
One Card, Endless Possibilities

September is National Library Card Sign-up Month, and the theme this year is "One Card, Endless Possibilities." Imagining and connecting to what is possible is kind of a thrilling and daunting thought, because we are living in such a fascinating time. So many of us are searching for those ideal paths, navigating the world of intelligences: artificial, creative, emotional, historical, interpersonal, logical, spiritual – the list goes on and on! Libraries are excellent places to begin many of those paths by grabbing a book, taking in a performance, taking part in group activities, researching databases, or using us as a launch pad. As proud as I am of everything PHL has to offer here inside these walls, achieving that Possible does not happen in a vacuum. The next step is often elsewhere, and sometimes it leads toward one of our many fantastic community partners. So we want you to come here first – and then go away to the next best place – and then come back here for more. 🌀 Your library card can be the Possible, bolstering the paths available to you and yours...

September is Library Card Sign-Up Month!

It may be small, but a library card packs a mighty punch. Borrow museum passes, musical instruments, and even cameras from your Palm Harbor Library. It's one card with endless possibilities!

If you've been thinking about having your kids sign up for their first library card, now's the time!

All month long, children in grades Pre-K- 5th who sign up for their first library card this month receive a certificate, free book, and small prize.

Adults who sign up for a library card receive a free book!

Donate to our Welcoming Week Household Goods Basket Drive for local refugees and new immigrants!

During the month of September, the Palm Harbor Library, in partnership with the Largo Public Library and the Barbara S. Ponce Public Library of Pinellas Park will host a household goods basket drive to support local refugees and new immigrants. Community members are encouraged to donate full-size, new, unused household goods.

How you can help:

Stop by the library to pick up a shopping list. Drop off new items at a participating library from Sept. 2nd - 30th or purchase an item from our Amazon Wish List and have it shipped to the Largo Library.
