Director's Column: Getting Down to Business

Exciting news! The Palm Harbor Library (PHL) has been named the 2025 Non-Profit Business of the Year by the Palm Harbor Chamber of Commerce. We are honored by this accolade, and our relationship with the Chamber is truly invaluable. For those who do not know, the Chamber hosts Community Coffee Hour the first Thursday of each month here at our library. It is an excellent opportunity to hear from area leaders, network with other professionals, get updates from local businesses, and pitch your own local business. I also proudly serve with the Chamber President/CEO on the Palm Harbor Main Street Association, Inc. Board of Directors – alongside leaders from Palm Harbor Parks & Recreation, Pinellas County Veterans Association, and others. In addition to the monthly Chamber coffee hour, PHL provides other other important resources for the business community...
